The ABGA board voted unanimously to change the procedure for sanctioned show ribbons, effective January 1, 2026. The key updates are:

- Prize Pack Options Expanded – Shows will now have more flexibility to select awards that best suit their exhibitors and events, including both traditional ribbon packs and new vinyl banner options.
- Pass-Through Cost Model – The cost of sanctioned show ribbons and shipping will no longer be covered by ABGA but instead be passed through to individual shows.
- Prize Packs Optional – While the cost of prize packs will no longer be covered by ABGA, it is not mandatory that you order a prize pack from the ABGA.
- No Sanctioned Show Fee – This change allows ABGA to reduce expenses and maintain a balanced budget while continuing to avoid adding any sanctioned show fees.
- Discounted Pricing Secured – ABGA has worked with vendors to ensure affordable options for show organizers.

Attached to this application is a catalog outlining the expanded prize pack offerings and the cost for each option.

American Boer Goat Association Disclaimer and Sanctioning Agreement

I acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. That the American Boer Goat Association, its officers, directors, agents, employees, and volunteers (hereafter collectively known as "ABGA") shall not be held responsible for any loss, injury, or damage in connection with, arising out of, or incident to the above show. I further and hereby expressly waive all rights to claim against ABGA, and release ABGA from any liability whatsoever with respect to any injury to person, damage to, or loss of property from any cause whatsoever (expressly including ABGA's negligence).
2. That the above show will abide by and remain in accordance with the ABGA Sanctioned Show Rules and have an updated copy of the ABGA Rules and Regulations available if any problem or question should arise during the above show.
3. That the above show will submit a copy of scheduled classes and applicable entity rules to ABGA, per the ABGA Rules and Regulations. See Rule 1400 (I) v.
4. To provide an ABGA approved judge to judge the above show(s).
5. To report the judge's name to the ABGA office no less than 30 days prior to the entry deadline.
6. Original registration certificates are required, except that a copy of a registration application, stamped with the date received by ABGA, can be accepted for kids less than 3 months of age. Animals over the age of 3 months must be verified as registered in the ABGA database at the time of the above show. An animal that may be verified as registered in the web-based database of ABGA will be accepted in lieu of a registration certificate. Verification must be provided by the exhibitor in either digital or print to the show secretary. JABGA ownership must be verified using the transfer history on the animal pedigree if the certificate is not provided. Goats registered in a frozen or suspended account are ineligible to exhibit in an ABGA Sanctioned Show.
7. That, in accordance with the ABGA Sanctioned Show Rules, the Show Secretary must submit show results to the ABGA office to be verified within 30 days of the conclusion of the show. The report must include the following: class, list of animals in class with placings, animal's name, animal's (ABGA) registration number, identifying tattoos (left and right), or microchip number, and the owner's name.
8. No show will be sanctioned during the week of the ABGA/JABGA National Show.
9. No JABGA show will be sanctioned that occurs on a conflicting date and within 500 miles of a scheduled JABGA Regional Show.

I understand that ABGA has the right to decline or revoke sanctioning for this show at any time. The ABGA office will send notification of sanctioning approval or denial to the Show Secretary. This notification may be made to the Show Secretary's email address, if provided.

By signing this agreement, I certify that all information submitted is true and correct, and that I will comply with all the requirements of conducting an ABGA Sanctioned Show and all the statements above.
